When reporting an emergency, be prepared to give:
• Location—building, street address of the building, room, directions
• Type and severity of emergency—fire, medical, police, hazardous material
• When the incident occurred
• Your name, location, and phone number so responders can find you

WHAT TO KNOW:
If there is a mental health emergency or you are concerned someone may harm themselves in the immediate future, you should use a campus emergency phone or call 911 (or (607)255-1111 from a cell phone).

If you are concerned for the longer-term mental health of a student, call Gannett Health Services at (607)255-5155. If you are concerned about the mental health of faculty, staff, post-doctoral fellows and associates, retirees, spouses/partners of employees, call the Faculty and Staff Assistance Program (FSAP) at (607)255-2673

SEVERE WEATHER
In the case of severe weather, take shelter inside a sturdy building.
If a tornado warning is issued or you see a funnel cloud:
• Go to the basement or an interior room on the lowest floor
• Closets, bathrooms, and other interior rooms are best
• Get under something sturdy or cover yourself with a mattress if possible

MENTAL HEALTH EMERGENCY
If there is a mental health emergency or you are concerned someone may harm themselves in the immediate future, you should use a campus emergency phone or call 911 (or (607)255-1111 from a cell phone).

If you are concerned for the longer-term mental health of a student, call Gannett Health Services at (607)255-5155. If you are concerned about the mental health of faculty, staff, post-doctoral fellows and associates, retirees, spouses/partners of employees, call the Faculty and Staff Assistance Program (FSAP) at (607)255-2673

WHAT TO KNOW:
When reporting an emergency, be prepared to give:
• Location—building, street address of the building, room, directions
• Type and severity of emergency—fire, medical, police, hazardous material
• When the incident occurred
• Your name, location, and phone number so responders can find you

CAMPUS RESPONSE AND INFORMATION SERVICES
Cornell Police
• Emergencies .........................................................................................................................911
• Emergencies (cell phone) ...............................................................................................(607)255-1111
• Non-emergencies ..............................................................................................................(607)255-1111

Campus Life Facilities Office .................................................................................................(607)255-0423
Facilities Customer Service .................................................................................................(607)255-5322
Gannett Health Services .......................................................................................................(607)255-5155
University Operating Status-inclement weather ...............................................................(607)255-3377
University Special Conditions Website ................................................................................http://www.cornell.edu/cuinfo/specialconditions/